Arriving to Jurerê Beach Village Hotel

If you want to exchange money, you will find a currency exchange agency on the ground floor and several ATMs at the first floor of the airport.

The approximate cost from the airport to the hotel is around R$ 100 (US$ 30 or € 27). You can pay by cash or credit card in the Taxi Information Desk. The taxi drivers eventually can accept credit card but usually accept only cash (Brazilian reais). The estimated travel time is around 50 min.

Address and instructions to go to the hotel are described in the next page in portuguese. You can show that page to the taxi driver.

Once you arrived to Hercílio Luz Airport, you can go to the Taxi Information Desk (first balcony in the right side after leaving the Domestic Baggage Claim Hall) or going directly outside and ask one of taxi drivers to take you to Jurerê Beach Village Hotel.
